

Pellet Partner

Pellet Partner is a pellet binder that is organic in nature, which contributes energy to your feed, unlike clay-based binders. Pellet Partner also offers you a cost reduction because dehydration costs are eliminated.

Moisture and temperature addition from steam is very costly when using a dry binder. Because Pellet Partner is a liquid binder, it helps transfer heat uniformly throughout the mash.