

Stress-Mix

Westway can provide stressed cattle solutions thru our many liquid carriers.

These can be provided with enhanced vitamins and minerals that young, stressed cattle require upon arrival at the feedlot in order to keep them healthy and get their rumens activated properly and get them on feed quickly to avoid sickness and death loss.

These products are extremely palatable so cattle take to them readily and get on full feed quickly.