

Custom Blends

---

These blends can be custom tailored by the feedlot nutritionist to fit the specific situation that a particular group of cattle may have.

These blends can be as simple as two ingredients that provide protein and/or energy or more complex by adding protein, energy, vitamins, minerals, and other additives such as enzymes or ionophores.